McLean Students Visit Legislature Session Tuesday

Would you like to go to Indianapolis to visit the state legislature? That's what many students and mothers of students of McLean did Tuesday. We will now take you through this trip with us. First we met our chaperon, Miss Ethel Ray, at the state house. Then we visited the house of representatives. The McLean students were introduced by Representative Ryan. At 11.00 o'clock the students and others in the balcony were asked to leave while they went into conference or caucus. Then we all went to see the governor. Everyone was greatly surprised. He was in conference with his advisers and he had snow white hair although he was not old at all. We then went to the soldiers and sailors monument. Some walked up it and some took the elevator. This monument is 32 flights or 324 steps. Then when we had stimulated an appetite we had our luncheon at the English hotel. At 2:00 o'clock we went to the senate which was more exciting because many arguments took place Everyone departed thankful they had come. Those who went are: Marguerite Noyes, Marian Van Bibber, Rhoda Ann Throckmorton, Virginia Moore, Dorothy Tygret, Betty Lou Nicholas, Betty Byrne, Charles Kennedy, Elmer Menefee, Jack Loser, James Tuttle, Edith Parker, Frank Terhorst, Theodore Harriman, Gilbert Hogue, Richard Heustis, Ruth Figgert, Martha Stanger, Mary Whallon, Clarice Finn, Sally Douglass, Rebecca Stoker, Mary Pipes, Dorothy Fox, Raymond Bolinger, Nicholas Anderson, Bob Davis, Ralph Chappelle, Howard Cline, Sam McGurk, Frances Greenleaf, Jean McKee, Fadra Hornbuckle, Joan Richardson, Margaret Brown, Milton Archer, Dorothy Davis, Laverne Woolford, Mrs. Finn, Mrs. Stanger, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Throckmorton, Estaline Shepard, Bryon Ferguson, Mrs. Crimp, John Freed and our chaperon, Mrs. Ethel Ray.
